BUILDING VALUE THROUGH PARTNERING

Partnering fuels progress in the life sciences industry. Partnering in all its forms, whether based on in- or out-licensing of a product, a technology transfer, M&A or co-marketing arrangement, starts with making contact with the right company at the right time.

Bring your conference to the next level where partnerships can flourish, by adding a professional networking platform.

EBD GROUP'S partneringONE™ SERVICE: THE MOST TRUSTED NAME IN PROFESSIONAL CONFERENCE PARTNERING

partnering ONE is the leading conference solution for helping life science delegates to meet efficiently and effectively. “
SAY

“We are continually seeking ways to enhance the value of the AdvaMed conference for our attendees. By adding professional partnering to our event, we are giving new and emerging growth companies, investors, regional and international trade officials and other key industry players the means to efficiently network within the industry. EBD Group’s partneringONE gives our conference a proven solution to confidently provide world-class partnering.”

– Managing Director, AdvaMed Medical Technology Conference

“We are excited to work with EBD Group to provide expert partnering for the InnoVet International Veterinary Business Conference. We investigated other partnering systems and partneringONE was attractive to us in functionality, ease of use and customization to meet the unique needs of our veterinary business market.”

– Conference Manager, InnoVet Business Conference

EXECUTIVES “...a real time-management and productivity tool that gets me connected with the right people.”

INVESTORS “The search capabilities for new potential investment opportunities are robust.”

RESEARCHERS “Navigating the crowds to find peers and colleagues in industry, government and academia is simplified!”

CLINICIANS “Finding companies and peers with new products and solutions for advancing medicine, keeps me up-to-date on best practice and cutting edge technologies.”

GOVERNMENT “A master schedule that includes my meetings, speaking times, and plenary sessions keeps me focused and organized at large events.”

ACADEMIA “Reviewing profiles (people, institutions/companies, and products/technologies/services), helps me identify potential collaborations and/or funding opportunities.”
